SECTION I

GENERAL

1. Authority.—The Corps of Intelligence Police was authorized by the Secretary of War 13 August 1917, was extended 7 February 1920, was further extended 13 December 1941 and redesignated the Counter Intelligence Corps.

2. Purpose.—These regulations—

a. Set forth Department of the Army policies governing the administration of Counter Intelligence Corps personnel and units.

b. Set forth policy concerning the training and career management of Counter Intelligence Corps personnel, including the training of Reserve personnel.

c. Detail the procedures of accomplishing personnel and administrative requisites, conforming to special supply systems, meeting reporting requirements, and standardizing general procedures peculiar to the Counter Intelligence Corps.

3. Mission.—The mission of the Counter Intelligence Corps is set forth in SR 380-310-1 and is to contribute to the successful operations of the Army Establishment through the detection of treason, sedition, subversive activity, and disaffection, and detection and prevention of espionage and sabotage within the Army Establishment and such areas over which it may have jurisdiction.

4. Supervision and command responsibilities.—The Assistant Chief of Staff, G-2, Department of the Army, establishes policies governing the administration, operation, and employment of the Counter Intelligence Corps, and exercises general supervision over the Counter Intelligence Corps throughout the Army Establishment. Under the supervision of the Assistant Chief of Staff, G-2, the Chief, Counter Intelligence Corps, is delegated the authority to—

a. Approve the nomination of enlisted personnel selected for training in and duty with the Counter Intelligence Corps, and initiate and conduct investigations incident to such selection.

b. Administer special funds allocated to the Counter Intelligence Corps Center by the Assistant Chief of Staff, G-2.

c. Procure and distribute special investigative equipment for Counter Intelligence Corps use.

d. Conduct tests and developmental activities in the field of special investigative equipment and techniques.

e. Recommend the composition, activation, and inactivation of Counter Intelligence Corps elements in the field.

f. Prepare and recommend to the Assistant Chief of Staff, G-2, doctrine and policy for the operational employment of Counter Intelligence Corps personnel and units.

g. Recommend Counter Intelligence Corps participation in counter intelligence operations.

h. Prepare training objectives for Army-wide Counter Intelligence Corps.

i. Conduct the general administration of the Counter Intelligence Corps.

j. Prepare standard publications pertaining to subjects peculiar to the Counter Intelligence Corps.

k. Supervise the Career Guidance of personnel, within the CIC Segment of the Military Intelligence Career Field in coordination with the Chief, Army Field Forces.

l. Establish, operate, and maintain a central Counter Intelligence Corps file.

m. Develop minimum standards for special investigative files, to include the inspection, retirement, and disposition of such files when no longer required by the command or technical service concerned, subject to the provisions of SR 345-920-1 and SR 380-320-10.

n. Prepare technical training programs and establish training standards for Counter Intelligence Corps civilian components in accordance with over-all training policies. Select personnel for the Military Intelligence-United States Army Reserve (Counter Intelligence Corps Specialization) and recommend their mobilization assignments. Make recommendations to the Army agencies on the organization and equipment of Organized Reserve Corps-Counter Intelligence Corps units of the civilian components.

o. Make staff visits to continental army area Counter Intelligence Corps detachments to determine proficiency in Counter Intelligence Corps administrative, personnel, and technical matters as well as to insure that coordinate application of over-all Department of the Army doctrine and policy, as taught at the Counter Intelligence Corps Center, is being effected.

5. Security from publicity.—a. Within the continental United States, release for publication of information relative to the Counter Intelligence Corps will be coordinated by the Chief, Counter Intelligence Corps, with the Chief of Information, Department of the Army, under policies established by the Assistant Chief of Staff, G-2. In oversea commands, publication of such information will be in accordance with directives of the oversea commander and within the purview of policy stated in this paragraph. No individual will be identified as a member of the Counter Intelligence Corps in an unclassified publication without the prior approval of the Chief, Counter Intelligence Corps.

b. Rosters of Counter Intelligence Corps personnel will be handled as CONFIDENTIAL information. When operating in civilian clothing or the civilian uniform, Counter Intelligence Corps personnel will be addressed as "Mister" and rank will not be revealed in orders.

6. Badges, credentials, and firearms.—a. Appropriate badges and credentials for the identification of Counter Intelligence Corps personnel will be issued to qualified agents by the Chief, Counter Intelligence Corps. Procedures for the issuance, use, and safeguarding of such badges and credentials will be as determined by the Chief, Counter Intelligence Corps. Counter Intelligence Corps badges and credentials will be honored by all members of the Army Establishment at all times.

b. Carrying of firearms by Counter Intelligence Corps investigative personnel is authorized only in the performance of official duties.

SECTION II

PERSONNEL

7. General.—a. Delineation.

- (1) The term "Counter Intelligence Corps personnel" used in these regulations will be interpreted to include all personnel procured, cleared, trained, and properly designated by an MOS listed in paragraph 7b for assignment and reassignment to Counter Intelligence Corps units organized under T/O & E 30-500 or approved tables of distribution in all components of the Army for performing investigative and technical functions incident to the successful accomplishment of the mission of the Counter Intelligence Corps.
- (2) The term "Counter Intelligence Corps personnel" used in these regulations will not be construed to include those personnel assigned to Counter Intelligence Corps units organized under T/O & E 30-500 or approved tables of distribution units in all components of the Army performing those duties properly classified as falling within other established career fields. Accordingly, unless specifically provided in these regulations, personnel in this category will remain under the appropriate control branch or career field monitor for rotation, promotion, and related functions.

b. Counterintelligence MOS.—Counter Intelligence Corps personnel within the purview of these regulations are—

MOS codes	MOS titles	Grades
9302-----	Counterintelligence Officer-----	O-1 through O-6. and W-1 through W-4.
1301-----	Counterintelligence Agent-----	E-5 through E-7.
4247-----	Intelligence Specialist (only those referred to in par 54k(2), SR 615-25-31).	E-2 through E-4.

8. Procurement of Personnel for Counter Intelligence Corps units.—a. Counter Intelligence Corps personnel.—Counter Intelligence Corps personnel will be procured and assigned in accordance with AR 600-148 and SR 615-120-50.

b. Other personnel.—Personnel of the category described in paragraph 7a(2), required to fill authorized positions in Counter Intelligence Corps units will be provided by the major commander concerned from qualified personnel of appropriate MOS from resources at his disposal. Upon assignment of personnel in this category to a Counter Intelligence Corps unit, the major commander concerned will cause a background investigation as outlined in sections VI and VII, paragraph 10, SR 380-160-1, to be performed on each individual to determine whether he may be cleared for CIC duty.

9. Procurement of Counter Intelligence Corps personnel.—a. Selection criteria.—Selection criteria for personnel desiring assignment to the Counter Intelligence Corps is prescribed in AR 600-148.

b. Enlistment and reenlistment.—Voluntary enlistments and reenlistments in the Regular Army Unassigned for assignment to the Counter Intelligence Corps will be accomplished under the provisions and procedures of SR 615-120-50.

c. Assignment.—Assignment of officer, warrant officer, and enlisted personnel to the Counter Intelligence Corps will be accomplished under the provisions and procedures of AR 600-148.

d. Probationary status.—All personnel initially accepted for assignment to the Counter Intelligence Corps under the authorities cited in b and c above will remain in a probationary status until loyalty, discretion, and character have been established by a background investigation as prescribed in SR 380-160-1, broadened in scope as determined by the Chief, Counter Intelligence Corps, and potential value has been established by successful completion of a prescribed course of training at the Counter Intelligence Corps Center.

e. Award of Counterintelligence MOS codes.—The Chief, Counter Intelligence Corps, is designated as the principal agency for the award of the MOS codes contained in paragraph 7b. CIC MOS codes will be awarded by the Chief, Counter Intelligence Corps, upon successful completion of the prescribed course of instruction at the Counter Intelligence Corps School, or, in certain exceptional cases, by major commanders after concurrence of the Chief, Counter Intelligence Corps, has been obtained through direct communication.

10. Assignment and utilization of Counter Intelligence Corps personnel.—a. Assignment jurisdiction.—The Adjutant General, with the concurrence of the Chief, Counter Intelligence Corps, will maintain control over the assignment of all personnel on active duty having a primary MOS appearing in paragraph 7b.

b. Assignment procedures.—Assignment of Counter Intelligence Corps personnel is governed by AR 600-148, AR 600-150, SR 600-175-1, SR 605-60-25, SR 615-60-10, SR 615-120-50, and (1) and (2), below:

(1) Continental United States.—Based upon requisitions submitted by the major commands under the provisions of SR 605-60-25 in the case of officer and warrant officer personnel, and SR 615-60-10 in the case of enlisted personnel, the Chief, Counter Intelligence Corps, will furnish The Adjutant General with name, rank, service number, and other appropriate data of personnel nominated for assignment against approved allocations to fill the several requisitions.

(2) Oversea commands.

(a) The Chief, Counter Intelligence Corps, will maintain foreign service eligibility rosters in accordance with the provisions of SR 600-175-1.

(b) Based upon forecasts of the projected requirements of oversea commands, the Chief, Counter Intelligence Corps, will alert eligible officer, warrant officer, and enlisted personnel by letter, normally 4 months prior to expected Port call.

(c) The Chief, Counter Intelligence Corps, will furnish The Adjutant General with name, rank, service number, and other appropriate data of personnel nominated for shipment to the several oversea commands. The Adjutant General upon approval will publish the necessary orders in the case of officer and warrant officer personnel and inform the major commands in the continental United States of levies of enlisted personnel by name.

c. Assignment restrictions on certain Counter Intelligence Corps personnel.—Counter Intelligence Corps personnel, if married to foreign nationals or to former foreign nationals may be restricted as to assignments based on Department of the Army directives as issued.

d. Utilization of Counter Intelligence Corps personnel.—Counter Intelligence Corps personnel, as designated by the MOS cited in paragraph 7b, when assigned to major commands should be utilized for appropriate duties in Counter Intelligence Corps unit.

e. Career management.

- (1) Career management of officers and warrant officers assigned to the Counter Intelligence Corps is vested in the Intelligence Section, Career Management Division, The Adjutant General's Office. The vested agency, in accomplishment of this responsibility, will be guided by the recommendations of the Chief, Counter Intelligence Corps.
- (2) Career guidance of enlisted personnel assigned to the Counter Intelligence Corps and classified in the Intelligence Career Field is vested in the Chief, Counter Intelligence Corps, as the proponent agency for its execution.

11. Disposition of personnel not meeting retention criteria.—a. When appropriate, Counter Intelligence Corps personnel will be removed from assignment to the Counter Intelligence Corps in accordance with the provisions of AR 600-148.

b. In such cases, classification or personnel officers will take action to withdraw the applicable CIC MOS, as prescribed in SR 605-105-1 and SR 605-105-2 for officers and warrant officers, or in SR 615-25-25 and SR 615-25-30 (or SR 615-25-31) for enlisted personnel. The remark to be used in each case is: "MOS ----- withdrawn per paragraph 11a, SR -----."

c. Personnel fully qualified for assignment to the Counter Intelligence Corps, but who are transferred to other agencies upon their own request, or as a result of exigencies of the service or by the operation of other regulations, will retain any MOS Code in paragraph 7b in which they have qualified.

SECTION III

ADMINISTRATION

12. General.—Administration of Counter Intelligence Corps units is a responsibility of commands to which assigned or attached as provided in AR 220-5. The commander of a Counter Intelligence Corps unit is responsible to the commander of the command to which the unit is assigned or attached for the interior administration of the Counter Intelligence Corps units. Excepting departures authorized by appropriate regulations, Counter Intelligence Corps units will be governed by all regulations applicable to military personnel and units in general.

13. Channels for administrative correspondence.—Administrative correspondence originating in or intended for Counter Intelligence Corps units will be processed in accordance with the provisions of AR 340-15. As exceptions to the foregoing provisions, direct correspondence relative to administrative reports prescribed in paragraph 16 and requests for information relative to Counter Intelligence Corps policy, training, and specialized investigative equipment is authorized between the Chief, Counter Intelligence Corps, and Counter Intelligence Corps units provided intermediate headquarters are not required to exercise any command function or control in the subject matter of the correspondence.

14. Security classification of routine reports and correspondence.—All routine and recurring reports and correspondence will be classified in accordance with the provisions of AR 380-5. Notwithstanding the fact that the existence and the general organization of the Counter Intelligence Corps are public knowledge and its mission and employment are only classified as RESTRICTED, any reference to total strength of a unit, identity of investigative personnel, operational methods, employment of classified investigative equipment, or matters prejudicial to persons contained in reports, correspondence, or orders will be classified CONFIDENTIAL or higher in accordance with the provisions of AR 380-5.

15. Administrative provisions.—a. Clothing and equipment.

- (1) While on duty administrative personnel will wear the prescribed military uniform and equipment for the command to which assigned or attached unless such apparel would compromise the mission of the unit.
- (2) The prescribed clothing and equipment for investigative personnel and their technical assistants will be governed by the mission of the respective investigators and their technical assistants. The commander of a Counter Intelligence Corps unit is responsible for advising the commander of the command to which his unit is assigned or attached on the proper clothing and equipment requirements of his investigative personnel. Personnel of this category will be provided with civilian clothing and special equipment in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs 20 and 21. Normally, investigative personnel will wear civilian clothing or the military uniform with metal "U. S." and without insignia of grade.

b. Quarters and messes.—Normally, Counter Intelligence Corps personnel will not be quartered and messed with other troops unless such arrangements are required by their mission or necessary for their protection. When required in connection with the accomplishment of their mission, Counter Intelligence Corps investigative personnel will be authorized separate quarters and rations under the provisions of AR 210-10.

c. Identification.—Counter Intelligence Corps investigative personnel when operating in civilian clothing will be afforded medical service, exchange and commissary privileges, and other normal military privileges to which they are entitled as members of the Armed Forces under regulations, upon presentation of official identification. Rank, service number, and unit to which assigned will not be required as elements for identification.

16. Recurring reports.—Copies of prescribed progress reports and other recurring reports as indicated below will be forwarded by each Counter Intelligence Corps unit direct to the Chief, Counter Intelligence Corps, Counter Intelligence Corps Center, Fort Holabird, Baltimore 19, Maryland.

a. Morning Report (DA AGO Form 1).

- (1) One unannotated information copy daily except last day of each calendar month.
- (2) On the last day of each calendar month, one information copy annotated on reverse side to account for Counter Intelligence Corps personnel as follows:

SECTION IV

SUPPLY

17. General.—Counter Intelligence Corps detachments will be equipped in accordance with T/O & E 30-500 and pertinent equipment modification lists, and/or Theater Tables of Allowances. Special investigative equipment will be procured in accordance with SR 380-335-1.

18. Responsibility.—a. Responsibility for Counter Intelligence Corps T/O & E equipment will be in accordance with AR 35-6520. Each Counter Intelligence Corps detachment commander will designate a responsible property officer who will be held responsible for special investigative equipment issued to or purchased for the detachment.

b. A detachment property book will be maintained in each Counter Intelligence Corps detachment in accordance with paragraph 7b (4), AR 35-6520, and SR 735-30-1.

c. Nonexpendable property purchased through confidential funds will not be entered on stock record accounts of the accountable officer, but will be recorded in a separate, classified detachment property book to be maintained in each Counter Intelligence Corps detachment. Equipment issued in accordance with classified authorities will also be recorded in the classified detachment property book.

19. Counter Intelligence Corps Depot.—The Counter Intelligence Corps Depot will supply, when requested, certain items of commercially purchased special investigative equipment for oversea detachments when authorized by G2 of major command and when funds have been sub-allotted to the Commanding General, Counter Intelligence Corps Center, by the theater or detachment commander concerned. Requests for such purchases should be addressed to the Chief, Counter Intelligence Corps (ATTN: Assistant Chief of Staff, G-4). Shipment to the detachment concerned will be made by air or water, as requested. Where air shipment is desired, the air priority number will be quoted. Where such purchases are desired, the oversea detachment concerned will initiate an Obligation Authority (DA AGO Form 14-114) on which will be cited the appropriate symbol number, allotment serial number, project, object, and station number. A description of the item to be purchased, stating the following where applicable, must be included: size, color, material, amount, manufacturer, model number, stock number, voltage, or any other pertinent information. A 25 percent overage of funds cited on WD AGO Form 14-114 will be included to allow for unforeseen price fluctuations and transportation charges from the manufacturer to the CIC Depot. If the items to be purchased are urgently needed, this information may be forwarded by cablegram or TWX, to be followed immediately by the properly executed DA AGO Form 14-114. It is extremely urgent that Form 14-114 follow as soon as possible since it alone can serve as proper authority for the purchase. The TWX must contain the advice of allotment number.

20. Procurement Procedures.—a. T/O & E equipment.—All organizational equipment listed in T/O & E 30-500, as amended, except that not required and upon which army and oversea commanders have quoted exception in accordance with applicable directives, will be requisitioned from the appropriate commander through the regular supply channels of the unit to which the Counter Intelligence Corps detachment is assigned or attached and, when received, will be entered in the detachment property book.

b. Special investigative equipment.—Counter Intelligence Corps detachments will procure non-standard special investigative equipment from two sources:

- (1) Direct requisitioning on the Counter Intelligence Corps Depot, Counter Intelligence Corps Center, for non-standard special equipment.
- (2) Purchasing from confidential funds available in the detachments.

c. Equipment for field testing.—Equipment which has been shipped from the Counter Intelligence Corps depot to detachments for field testing purposes will be debited to the classified detachment property book. An initial allowance of expendable supplies will be issued with the equipment in sufficient quantities to meet testing requirements. Upon completion of field testing, disposition instructions will be requested from the Chief, Counter Intelligence Corps, Attn: Assistant Chief of Staff, G-4.

21. Requisitions for supplies in excess of authorized allowances.—Separate requisitions for unclassified supplies in excess of authorized allowances, to meet temporary operational requirements, will be submitted through command channels to the appropriate head of technical service, with complete justification.

22. Equipment peculiar to or required only in certain theaters or armies.—a. When additional equipment is required over and above that authorized in pertinent tables, it will be procured by equipment modification lists in accordance with SR 310-30-4.

b. Requests for equipment modification lists should be submitted with complete and detailed operational justification for each item through channels in accordance with SR 310-30-4 for approval and publication.

23. Recommendations for changes to T/O & E 30-500 and tables of allowances.—Requests for changes to T/O & E 30-500 and tables of allowances for expendable supplies will be forwarded to the Chief, Counter Intelligence Corps. Action to accomplish these changes and revisions will be initiated when—

a. In the opinion of the Chief, Counter Intelligence Corps, a sufficient number of requests for corrections have accumulated to warrant publication of a change or if a single change has sufficient magnitude.

b. Required by a change in Department of the Army policies.

c. Rendered necessary by adoption of new equipment or a change in doctrine.

d. Change in organization will increase the operational efficiency of the unit.

24. Disposition of damaged or destroyed equipment.—When damaged equipment cannot be repaired by existing facilities available to the Counter Intelligence Corps detachment, such unserviceable equipment will be disposed of as follows:

a. T/O & E equipment will be turned in to the appropriate technical service supply office for classification.

b. Non-T/O & E special investigative equipment will be returned to the Counter Intelligence Corps Depot, Counter Intelligence Corps Center, for repair.

c. In all cases where unserviceable special investigative equipment is returned to the Counter Intelligence Corps Depot, a letter, indicating the circumstances under which the damage occurred, will accompany the equipment.

c. Equipment which has been lost or destroyed, will be surveyed, placed on statement of charges, or dropped in accordance with AR 735-150, SR 735-150-1, SR 735-100-3, or SR 735-160-1, as appropriate. Nonstandard special investigative equipment rendered unserviceable beyond repair through fair wear and tear may be dropped from responsibility by turn-in to the local property disposal officer. A distinterested intelligence officer will be appointed as classification officer, and his certificate of unserviceability due to fair wear and tear must accompany the turn-in slip to the local property disposal officer.

d. Reports of survey initiated for any property contained in the classified detachment property book or for property lost, damaged or destroyed while being utilized during a classified mission, the disclosure of which would tend to compromise the mission, will be transmitted through G2 channels to the army or oversea commander who will be the final approving authority on such reports of survey.

25. Disposition of equipment excess to operational needs, or upon inactivation of Counter Intelligence Corps detachment.—a. T/O & E equipment.—All organizational equipment will be turned in through regular supply channels of the unit to which the Counter Intelligence Corps detachment is assigned or attached.

b. Non-T/O & E special investigative equipment.—Counter Intelligence Corps detachments will request disposition instructions from the Counter Intelligence Corps Depot, Counter Intelligence Corps Center, for non-T/O & E investigative equipment, submitting a complete list of items in excess and indicating the reasons for such excesses.

c. Detachment property books.—Detachment commanders will, upon turn-in of all property and equipment, reduce the detachment property book to zero balances in readiness for examination, in accordance with paragraph 3b (2), AR 35-6700.

26. Inspections and Audits.—a. Detachment property book.—Detachment commanders will require an inspection to be made of the detachment property book by an officer or warrant officer at least once every 3 months in compliance with SR 735-30-1 and reports of such inspections will be retained for review by the Inspector General or other inspecting officers.

b. Classified detachment property book.—Inspections and audits of confidential special investigative equipment recorded in the classified property book, whether issued in accordance with classified authorities or purchased from G2 funds, will be made in conformance with paragraph 7, SR 380-335-1.

27. Supply publications.—The following is a list of supply publications which should be available to the supply officer in each Counter Intelligence Corps detachment.

a. General supply publications.

- (1) AR 35-6520, Property Accountability and Responsibility.
- (2) AR 35-6700, Disposition of Property Records.

TRAINING

28. Responsibilities.—The Chief, Counter Intelligence Corps, is also commandant of the Counter Intelligence Corps School, a specialist school. As Chief, Counter Intelligence Corps, he is responsible for the training objectives for Army-wide Counter Intelligence Corps training. As commandant of the Counter Intelligence Corps School, he is responsible for the supervision of training, including preparation of training objectives, control of quotas, class capacities, course lengths, and frequency of courses.

29. School courses.—Courses given at the Counter Intelligence Corps School are listed in DA Pamphlet 20-21, The Army School Catalog. Quotas for the attendance of Counter Intelligence Corps personnel at other service schools will also be monitored by the Chief, Counter Intelligence Corps, and assignment to attend such courses will be made with a view toward selecting applicants from the Corps for whom such training is most desirable and in line with career management.

30. Organized Reserve Corps-Counter Intelligence Corps training.—The Chief, Counter Intelligence Corps, in co-ordination with other Department of the Army agencies, determines the scope of specialized training for Organized Reserve Corps-Counter Intelligence Corps reservists and prepares for distribution such training materials as are necessary to accomplish this responsibility.

31. Unit training.—a. Counter Intelligence Corps detachment commanders are responsible for such additional training of their personnel as is required to qualify them for continued Counter Intelligence Corps duty. The detachment commander is responsible for insuring that each member of his command maintains a high standard of physical condition and a high state of training as a soldier, as well as proficiency in operational duties. He is responsible that each member of his detachment secures and maintains proficiency in the use of technical equipment and firearms. Every effort will be made to cause Counter Intelligence Corps personnel to gain a useful knowledge of any foreign language spoken in the area of assignment and ideologies with which his duties require familiarity.

b. Each detachment commander will establish a unit training program with a comprehensive schedule to insure individual pro-
